

Honoring A Loved One

You have a unique opportunity to help the Glenmary Sisters continue their ministry and ensure that your loved ones will be remembered. The Sisters have placed the Tree of Life in a prominent place in the Glenmary center in Owensboro, Kentucky. Mounted on the wall in the entrance hall, this beautiful piece of art is a constant reminder of the many generous benefactors who have made our ministry possible.

When your gift is received, your loved ones name will be engraved on a leaf, apple, dove or rock and placed on the Tree of Life. As visitors to the Glenmary center enter the building, these are the first things they notice.

Our Sisters and visitors do enjoy seeing the photographs and reading about who are honored on the Tree of Life so we ask you to send us the information to be certain they are included in the Book of Life. It gives the Sisters a chance to personalize those for whom they are praying. We are happy to return any photographs you send after we have scanned them into the computer.
