

Honoring a Loved One

You have a unique opportunity to help the Glenmary Sisters continue their ministry and ensure your loved one will be remembered. The sisters have the Tree of Life in a prominent place in the Glenmary Center in Owensboro, Kentucky. Mounted on the wall in our entrance hall, this beautiful piece of art is a constant reminder of the many generous benefactors who have made our ministry possible.

When your gift is received, your loved one's name will be engraved on a leaf, apple, dove, or rock, and placed on the tree. We also create a page for them in our Book of Life if you provide us with a photograph and/or brief biography. The Book of Life is displayed in front of the Tree of Life.

Our sisters and visitors do enjoy seeing the photographs and reading about those who are honored on the Tree of Life so we ask you to send us the information to be certain they are included in the Book of Life. It gives the sisters a chance to personalize those for whom they are praying. We can return any photograph you send after we have scanned it, or email to Janet Willis at Janet@glenmarysisters.org.
